

A Wedding Sponsorship Company, Works With A Branford Connecticut Couple, To Make Their Dream Wedding A Reality

BRANFORD, CT., February 14, 2008 / PRNewswire / A Branford Connecticut couple will hopefully have their dream wedding become a reality, thanks to a national Wedding Sponsorship Company. Jennifer Ferraro and Anthony Ceniccola both from Branford Connecticut, approached Sponsor Your Wedding on December 19, 2007, through their web site www.sponsoryourwedding.com.

Anthony is a twenty-three year old associate industrial designer. His fiancé e is Jennifer, a twenty-three year old logistics/customer service associate. Jennifer & Anthony met on February 12, 2001 and eventually got engaged September 24, 2007. With wedding cost soaring, both Jennifer and Anthony researched the idea of having their wedding costs covered through sponsorship.

A sponsored wedding is not a new concept but a practical one. As the cost of weddings increase so does the realization of sponsorship. "Sponsor Your Wedding is a national company which offers Wedding Sponsorship services to clients from all over the globe" says Brian Leslie, CEO. We have clients registered with us from as far away as Johannesburg, South Africa to Kampala Center Uganda. Most of the clients however, are from within the United States. The Company charges no up front fees to join or to use services. A nominal commission is charged only when the company successfully negotiates a deal on the client's behalf. Depending on the product or service, savings can range from 20% to 80%. " We are not just a web site where people sign up, each client is treated as an individual," says Leslie. The company averages between fourteen and eighteen new clients daily.

"We are always looking for strategic partnerships with small business and larger corporations, who offer wedding related services, throughout North America" says Leslie. "In Vancouver Canada we recently created a strategic partnership with a major Vancouver Limousine Company, called Limo Jet Gold, to handle our visiting wedding couples, during the 2010 winter games," explains Leslie.
